New High Urged For Dimes Drive

The 1950 March of Dimes campaign must hit a new high, "if the nation is to undo the ravages of the blackest toll of infantile paralysis in its history," Mrs. Theo Tudury, County March of Dimes Director, said today in urging everyone to double his contribution to the drive this month.

The year 1949, Mrs. Tudury said, was the most severe in the 12-year history of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. With more than 40,000 persons stricken, epidemic disease of the National Foundation was virtually depleted, she pointed out, and it was necessary to conduct an emergency drive for the first time in the organization's history.

The director declared that the epidemic drive provided stop-gap funds, barely enabling the National Foundation to carry on through the last three difficult months of 1949. But if those who were stricken are to continue receiving help, resources must be replenished in the March of Dimes Campaign. "The financial problems involved in caring for polio victims are increasingly difficult not only because of widespread epidemics but also because of soaring medical and equipment costs," she said. "Only an enormously successful March of Dimes appeal will enable the National Foundation to provide continuing care for the thousands already stricken while at the same time preparing for any eventualities 1950 may bring. The year 1949 has taught us that we must be alerted for extremes." There also is urgent need for funds to continue the National Foundation's all-embracing research program aimed at eradicating this crippling disease, and control of this crippling disease.

Juvenile Base Ball League Shows Great Promise

Prospects for the proposed Baseball League for boys between the ages of 13 and 17 are splendid. The boys in charge of trying to enlist players of that age from not only Bay St. Louis but any part of the county are D. J. Lucas, Roger Heitzmann, Jr., Bruce Favre, Gregory Favre, Edward Dupiquier, Donald Mathis, Al Burns, Freddie Cabel, Lloyd Ladner, Jr., Vernon Parker.

The above boys will be glad to sign up any boys between the above ages who wish to come out for the League. The fact that some boys might never have played base ball before should not deter them from joining, as there will be several boys and experienced men around to show them. No one is expecting all of the boys to be stars, but one thing can be promised that every boy coming out will learn how to play or perfect his play, furthermore he will have a whole of a good time indulging in good wholesome exercises and play. Already a good many players have manifested their interest in this project. Besides the medals to be awarded to players on teams finishing first and second a good many trophies have been offered up by interested citizens for such feats as Best Batter, Best Fielder, Most Important Player, Sportsman-ship, etc. So boys those of you who have not as yet joined better jump in the band wagon and get in the fun.

It is the intention to open the league in early February if possible and weather conditions permitting. The game will be played on Wednesday nights and Sunday afternoons at Morrell's Stadium. Already a good many boys have been lobbying the ball around easily to get their arms in condition. "Watch this paper for further news of the League."

MISSISSIPPI POWER COMPANY REPORTS 1949 GAINS AS COMPANY CLOSES FIRST QUARTER CENTURY OF SERVICE

Mississippi Power Company added approximately 4000 new customers during 1949, bringing the total customers served to 75,827 at the end of the quarter, Mr. L. P. Sweett, president of the company said recently. During the year a 30,000 horsepower generating unit was placed in service and construction was started on a new 58,150 horsepower generating plant which is scheduled for completion early in 1951. Sales of more than 417 million kilowatt hours of electricity and other high spots of business activity were recorded for the year.

The company this year celebrates its Silver Anniversary commemorating 25 years of service to southeast Mississippi. On January 1, 1925, the newly organized company began services to several communities along the Gulf Coast. At that time it served 5,493 electric customers.

A program to extend modern electric facilities to other communities was started immediately and by the end of the year several more communities were receiving service from the company. Plans were also set in motion to construct transmission lines to interconnect communities served into the electricity available from hydro-electric sources in adjacent states.

Throughout the life of the company there has been a continuous building program. Transmission lines have been constructed, distribution systems strengthened and new ones built, and the advantages of electric service to scores of communities which had no electric service in 1925. During the war years construction was necessarily slowed down as most materials and supplies were channelled to other defense needs. The importance of power in the war effort resulted in the company to build a new generating plant which had been planned for some years.

This plant, the first modern high pressure steam electric generating plant in the state, was begun in early 1944 and was placed in service in March 1945. It is named Plant Eaton, for the company's first president, is located near the center of the operating area and feeds electricity to the farms, homes, businesses and industries of southeast Mississippi. Since that time two more units have been added and it now has a capacity of 90,000 horsepower and can produce more than 1,500,000 kilowatt hours of electricity daily.

In 1949 construction was started on another great generating plant which will have a capacity of 58,000 horsepower. Plant Sweett, named for the company president, is expected to go into service early in 1951. It too, will feed into the company's inter-connected transmission system.

Southeast Mississippi, the area served by Mississippi Power Company, has made tremendous progress in the last quarter century. One indication of this progress is the residential use of electricity. At the end of 1925 the average annual residential use of electricity was only 190 kilowatt hours, by the end of 1949, that had increased to 1341 kilowatt hours. Through the years the cost of electricity, to the customers, has followed a lowering trend. In 1925 the average cost per kilowatt hour for residential use was 13.60c and it now is 3.32c.

Approximately 48,000 major electrical appliances have been added to homes on Mississippi Power Company lines in the quarter century of service. Since the beginning of 1945, Mississippi Power Company's construction program has been moving at an accelerated pace. During those five years approximately 16 million dollars have been spent for construction. In the next three years additional millions will be expended in the program.

As the company has grown it has added tax producing properties for the area. It is now the largest ad valorem tax payer in southeast Mississippi and the fifth largest in the entire state, although operating in only 23 of the state's eighty-two counties. Taxes now consumed approximately 25 cents out of every dollar of revenue earned by the company.

THE SPORTSMEN'S TENT

AIR AND WATER POLLUTION

Too much attention cannot be given to steps to prevent the pollution of the air and water of the nation by industry. While there are some commendable accomplishments against pollution, the general opinion is that control will cost more than industry can spend. It is a well known practice of industry to pollute streams and waterways by using them as a receptacle for the wastes of chemical processes. The extent of the pollution of streams is not always recognized. The St. Louis Post-Dispatch says that 875 miles of streams in Missouri have been poisoned and constitute biological deserts, with dead fish and water unfit for cattle to drink. This should be a warning to ALL Coast communities of the possible perils of polluted water.

Industries often inject into the air fumes, vapors and gases that are objectionable even when not absolutely dangerous. This practice has reached such an extent that there are many citizens on guard lest the advent of a new industry brings with it disagreeable, dangerous and costly pollution of the air. We, along the Gulf Coast have not been bothered or endangered by the air polluters. We can be thankful that there are no such industries in our vicinity. But, many Coast communities have been, (and STILL are) made unhealthy, unwholesome places in which to live by the pollution of rivers and streams by factories using them to dispose of waste. Bayou Bernard and surrounding streams, for instance, is one of the sort of spots on the Coast; and has been for many years with NOTHING being done to make it a healthy stream once again.

State chemists have examined the waters from these filthy streams and found them polluted to the extent that fish could not live in that area. The chemical analysis was not followed up, however, with action; in fact, the analysis was never even completed nor were any official reports made available so that action could be taken. In short, Somebody fell down miserably on the job handed him by the taxpayers, paid for by the taxpayers and demanded by the taxpayers.

What was once a well known and extensively fished stream is now a mucky poisoned water hole.

The Gulfport Sportsmen's Association has carried the fight against this sinful condition to the very doors of the Legislature and their efforts have seen NO action on the part of the lawmakers or the industry or industries doing the damage.

Somebody is doing it! Who? Most everyone in a town is effected directly or indirectly when their community develops such sores that run rampant, endangering the people in their immediate vicinity. Who have built homes and are trying to earn their bread, either from small fishing camps, farms or the like; the sportsmen are hurt when their fishing streams are destroyed; hotel operators, tourist court managers and restaurant owners (to mention only a few) are sure to notice a slack season if our tourist attractions are not preserved and fishing is one of these attractions—Protect it!

ASKS INTERRACIAL COUNTY BOARDS

To Classify Teachers for Salary Purposes

Jackson, Miss.—Inter-racial county boards to recommend salaries of teachers was urged recently by Rep. J. A. Blount, Tallahatchie County, as a plan for granting Negro teachers equal pay guarantees with white teachers.

Blount suggested that a board, consisting of one Negro member and two white members, be appointed by county superintendents to classify all teachers in the county using training, experience and aptitude as guides.

The county boards would submit their recommendations to a state board, which Blount suggested to maintain balance among the county recommendations and ferret out overclassifications. Teachers would have the right to appeal from the classification they would be given.

The Tallahatchie county lawmaker suggested that Legislature appropriate not over $4,000,000 for the biennium to make adjustments in salaries between the two races.

He also called for funds to equalize transportation facilities and recommended that the state launch a school-building program for Negroes under which it would put up $2 for each $1 pledged by the county or school district to build the schools.

The plan finally suggested that all Negro schools be placed in county units, with the right to levy a county-wide tax for support of Negro schools.

Gov. Fielding L. Wright has pointed up to the 1950 Legislature the need for launching programs to equalize salaries of Negro and white teachers because of the threat of litigation of Negro teachers charging discrimination in wages.

He has also urged that plans be made for proving equal school facilities and opportunities for Negro children.

Capit. R. C. Craft, whose ship the Ames Laver is docked at Gulfview, is presently enjoying a winter trip of rest and relaxation in the Gulfview area.

The Waveland Country Club plans to hold its January "get-together" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Williams, 1000 Boulevard. Invitations to cocktail party have already been issued to members.

BLACK MART TAX

REPEAL IS SOUGHT

Temperance Leader Pledges Full-Scale Onslaught

Jackson, Miss.—Sen. Robert E. Lee Gentry, Mt. Olive, leader of prohibition forces in the Mississippi Upper House, promised a full-scale onslaught to repeal the 10 per cent "black market" liquor tax.

Gentry, who is chairman of the Senate temperance committee, said that last week he had told Sen. John Kyle, Sardin, chairman of the finance committee to hold his black market in committee to await action on other pressing measures.

"I had thought that it might be better to hold up on the black market tax until we did something about education, welfare and other big matters," Gentry said.

"But when I see that there is nothing yet on the calendar for these matters, then I don't think the black market bill should be held in abeyance."

He said he would work to have the bill brought to the finance committee at the earliest time, and I feel we will do it again," he said.

Meanwhile, Gentry called a meeting of his temperance committee to "study, pass out or kill all bills before the committee."

He promised that none of the three bills which the body has will be "pig-een-holed," and would be brought to the floor either on a favorable or unfavorable report.

Pending before the committee are two bills calling for referendums on the prohibition question. One is an out-contains provisions for sale of liquor on a statewide basis, if the state votes "wet" in the referendum.

The third bill is a concurrent resolution previously adopted by the House which memorialized Congress to put an end to the sale of federal liquor stamps in Mississippi.

Gentry asserted that "I am opposed to legalization of liquor in any form, and if a referendum bill passes, I will take the stump to oppose it."

2 BOYS, 5 BURIED ALIVE

BY BULLDOZER

Wichita Falls, Texas—Two little boys, both 5, died under dirt and debris which had apparently been pushed over them by a bulldozer as they played in a shallow gully. The bodies of the boys were found when H. W. Newman, one of hundreds of volunteers looking for the children, noticed a forlorn dog playmate of the boys, hanging around a little gully just off the river. Then the bulldozer operator remembered that he had buried the children to go away, telling them they might get hurt.

RESOLUTION TO RE-DISTRICT STATE

SLATED IN SENATE

Jackson—A resolution to abolish Mississippi's 82 counties and redistrict the entire state will be handed the state senate today.

Sen. Decatur Butler of Meadville said he would introduce the measure concurrent resolution, which calls for a constitutional amendment.

It would "drastically reduce taxation in Mississippi government and create a more efficient, representative government," Butler said in a prepared statement.

He said the move would invest in the legislature the authority of redesigning workable subdivisions.

"Counties are now exercising functions which do not properly belong to them," he continued.

"The last official survey made in Mississippi shows that the total bonded indebtedness of the counties in Mississippi amounted to $82,577,965.76, which was more than two and one-half times the amount of state indebtedness," Butler said.

"This same report showed that counties' expenditures amounted to $58,436,649, or approximately three times the total state expenditures."

"Our situation in Mississippi is similar to the stockholders of a $60,000,000 corporation, which would permit their business to be run by 82 loosely connected independent managers chosen directly by the stockholders."

"If a business were organized along these lines, it would not expect to pay dividends or long delay bankruptcy."

The senator, who speaks for Pike and Franklin Counties in southwest Mississippi, a farming and oil region, also proposed to abolish the office of sheriff as "obsolete." He said "most tax collectors."

In the house, two quarters attacked the proposed $9,000,000 four-year medical school and teaching hospital.

OFFERS PLAN ON ALLOCATION OF COUNTY GAS TAX

Jackson, Miss.—A new way to split gas tax revenues among the state's 82 counties was proposed in the state senate by Sen. Marvin Henley of Philadelphia. It is the second new allocation plan offered the legislature this session.

Henley introduced a bill that would give each county an equal share of the first 40 per cent collected under

HANCOCK COUNTY CROSS COUNTRY RELAY SLATED FOR FEBRUARY 22nd

The High Schools and Elementary Schools of the County have already started their training for the 2 1/2 and 10 miles to be run on Wednesday, February 22nd. All schools, both in the Elementary and High divisions, are being contacted weekly and the interest is at fever heat. It is gratifying to the promoters and officials in charge to see that the interest manifested is not limited to the schools, the athletes or faculty members, but the citizens of the county are as much interested and intend to follow the races in cars and buses. All of this predicts two great races, with not only the winners in doubt, but it is safe to predict that the records for both races will be broken.

Father Toner will be in charge and start the 10 mile race for High Schools which starting point is on the Kiln Road about 200 yards above the Old Bumping Base. The firing gun will go off at 2:30 p. m.

Robert Camors will be in charge of the 2 1/2 mile race for the Elementary Schools, which starts on Old Spanish Trail at a point almost directly in front of the Raymond Talbot's Grocery.

Starting gun at 2:30 p. m.

Mr. Gerald Price, with Highway patrolmen will be in charge of traffic. The wonderful work done last year by the local Boy Scouts to keep the road intersections at street crossings and to the success of the races and they will again be asked to assist.

Brothers Alexis, Gerard and Athenasius will be at the finish.

Mr. Ed Ortte, president of the Board of Supervisors who are sponsoring these races, will be at the Court House to greet the winners and present the medals and trophies.

Dr. M. J. Wolfe, an ex-champion long distance runner while at Stanislaus and Tulane, will follow the races from start to finish.

Mr. Ed Breland, County Superintendent of Education, will be referee of the two races.

The ruling was accompanied by a lengthy opinion in which the justices made it official that slot machines are gambling devices.

"No one, perhaps, would seriously doubt that even supreme court judges share the common knowledge as to when slot machines are operated as gambling devices," the opinion said.

The injunction becomes permanent against D. S. Morgan, M. A. Gilmore, Anthony Tapani, and Alfred Vasalli.

District Attorney L. W. Maples had secured a temporary injunction against the quartet that was stayed when they appealed the Hancock County chancery court's overruling of their objections to the injunction petition. The petition was filed on grounds the four were operating public nuisances.

The court said the four based their appeal on a claim that slot machines are not specifically banned in the general law, and that the state was not entitled to an injunction because it could criminally prosecute slot machine operators.

The suits originally were filed in July, 1948.

Other Coast decisions were as follows: J. Charles Jessup vs. June Reynolds, a minor, etc.; circuit, Harrison, suggestion of error overruled. Justice Lee took no part.

Glenn L. Sweetman, et al, trustee of Bilotti municipal separate school district vs. Harrison County; chancery, Harrison; suggestion of error overruled.

HALF BITS

Representative Patman, of Texas, thinks it's about time for Congress to give legal dignity to the expression "two bits"—a quarter, that is He has introduced a bill to authorize the coinage of "bits" and "half-bits." The bit would be worth twelve and a half cents and would contain a little more silver than a dime, while the half-bit would be worth six and a quarter cents and would presumably be made of nickel and copper.

Our ANNIVERSARY

Years Of Building For Mississippi

As the bells sounded to ring out the old year they also rang out a quarter century of service by Mississippi Power Company.

On January 1, 1925, the new company began service to some fifty-five hundred customers along the Gulf Coast. As the months and years went by new properties were constructed, new lines built, new electric facilities placed in service. And now twenty-five years later more than seventy-five thousand customers are being served directly, scores of communities are being served which had no electricity in 1925, and our generating facilities in Southeast Mississippi have a capacity exceeding all the plants in service in the entire State in 1925.

As we blow out the candles on the birthday cake we renew our pledge to continue to build for Mississippi, and to bring to everyone the advantages of modern electric living.

Congressional Sidelights

CONGRESSMAN WM. M. COLMER
A TRAGIC BLOW

The South took it on the chin again this past week in Congress. President Truman again delivered the blow. The one and only hope that the Southerners in the House had of defeating the mis-called Fair Employment Practices Act in that body was shattered on Friday last when President Truman aided by his strange bedfellow, lieutenant, the Society for the Advancement of Colored People, the CIO, the AFL, the big city machines, the left wing groups, the Communist Party and 64 weak-kneed Republicans teamed up to defeat a change in the rules which had effectively blocked that iniquitous legislative proposal on former occasions.

As we have repeatedly pointed out in this column, a filibuster under the rules of the House, unlike in the Senate, is impossible. Therefore, the House, in the absence of the power of the Rules Committee to serve as a governor or cooling-off chamber, is at the mercy of minority pressure groups. Many of the legislative committees of the House are stacked with proponents of these minority groups.

CIVIL RIGHTS THE ISSUE

Realizing that if the civil rights and other similar measures of the President's program were to clear the House, the Administration leaders in that body, taking advantage of the 1948 election, last January as the first order of business and instituted the so-called 21-day rule by which the Rules Committee could be by-passed and these measures brought to the Floor in 21 days for a vote. Strangely enough it was the Roosevelt Administration which put through the old rule by which the Rules for a cooling-off period.

Again, those of us opposed to these Committee could hold up legislation we were to stop the FEPC and similar measures have long realized that if unwise legislative proposals, we must return to the old rule of the House under which it would require a petition signed by 218 (a majority) members of the House. Therefore, last March a group of us got together and agreed that a resolution would have to be passed repealing the 21-day rule. Congressman Eugene Cox, the ranking member of the Rules Committee, was agreed upon as the man to introduce that resolution. It was introduced and permitted to lie in wait until we thought the strategic moment had arrived. Since it was obvious to all that we must have strong Republican support, if the move was to succeed, the Republican leadership agreed with us at the beginning of the Session early this morning that the time had arrived. It then became my responsibility as Chairman of the Southern group to line up the Southerners for the proposal. This was no easy task in view of the pressure that was applied by the President, the Speaker, the Majority Leader and the National labor groups. But the fact remains that we did succeed in getting 85 Southern Members out of a possible 104. It is significant that we had a solid vote for the resolution in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Georgia, and Florida; losing one in South Carolina, two in North Carolina, two in Virginia and five in Tennessee. However, the fight was lost due to the fact that the Republican leadership was unable to hold 64 of their Members (practically all from the big Northern and Western cities) in line. The result: for the resolution 183; against 236.

In the debate on the Floor it was definitely made clear by both the Republican leadership and Majority Leader McCormack that the issue was FEPC and the deficit spending program.

Had the Cox Resolution carried the Rules Committee would have continued to keep the FEPC bottled up, but since it failed Speaker Rayburn will, under the 21-day rule which remains in effect, recognize Chairman Lesinski of the Labor Committee to call up this unwise proposal within the next 30 days, and Northern Democrats and Republicans as we see it now, will be enough to pass it overwhelmingly. The only hope left then is the Senate filibuster.

HOSPITAL BOARD URGED IN SENATE

Would Control Mississippi's Charity Facilities

Jackson, Miss.—Mississippi charity hospitals will be placed under control of the commission on hospital care if a bill offered the Senate this week is adopted.

The new measure by Sens. H. H. Hardee and Fred Jones also would abolish the old and once powerful eleemosynary board which now has authority.

Jones described the board as "about the sorriest one ever set up in Miss." "Every institution that was under its care has deteriorated," he asserted. The bill went to the committee on human and benevolent institutions. Hardee is chairman of the committee.

But senators questioned about the proposal gave mixed reaction. Hospitals affected would be the South Mississippi Charity hospital, Maty Hersee hospital and charity hospitals at Jackson, Vicksburg and Natchez. Control of state mental institutions and delinquent children homes was taken from the eleemosynary board four years ago. They have been placed under separate agencies.

Jones said the new bill would take all control from the board and legislate it out of existence. He said Mississippi hospitals suffered from lack of attention by board members.

WINS $100.00 BOND IN STATE MOVIE TAX CONTEST

Emile J. Gex, Jr. was one of the winners in the recent Movie Tax Contest, covering the entire state of Mississippi, and was awarded a $100.00 U. S. Savings Bond.

Mr. Gex's winning entry, presented through the Orthe Theatre, now the Star Theatre, is reprinted in full below:

Dear Mr. Public:
Did you know that YOU, as a Mississippian, pay 15 times more sales tax on your movie ticket than you pay on most other purchases made in this state? Furthermore, YOU pay practically the highest state tax in the nation. This situation is obviously unfair and unjust, and should be remedied.

YOU, not the movie industry, bear this unjust burden. The movie theatre is the average man's main source of recreation; YOU and your family are the chief participants; YOU carry the brunt of the burden. Similar institutions in our state provide this same type service, but their customers are taxed little or not at all. Other states have 2 per cent, or less, tax. Why then, in all sense of justice, should the Mississippi movie patrons be discriminated against just because his recreational preference is a movie?

The tax that you now pay was originally designed for "temporary emergency" only. Nearly twenty years ago Mississippi imposed the 10 per cent Patron Tax for "only a short time". Again, during the recent war, our federal government added the 20 per cent Patron Tax in order that it might quickly raise money badly needed. Your neighborhood theatre patriotically cooperated in both instances, but "a long time" has passed and any national emergency has ended, whereas promises have not been kept nor has relief been forthcoming.

Theatre today are vital educational, and it is an unsound principle which discourages their attendance. The average Mississippian after leaving school would have little opportunity of furthering his education if it were not for the movies. It is the theatre which conscientiously introduces him to good music, intelligent drama, and fine artists. Through the medium of visual aid he becomes familiar with the most important people of his age and is an eye witness to the actual happening of news events throughout the world within hours after their occurrence.

Finally, neither as a health-aid nor the importance of the theatre be overlooked. Our average citizen and his family have made the movie theatre their local recreation center, where they receive vital relaxation and harmless entertainment. It is as much a part of our daily life as is the church, the school, and the corner store.

In conclusion, the movie theatre has proved its importance to both our state and to its people. It has always offered its full cooperation for any charity drive or other national or local need. Because of the importance and high type of service rendered by the motion picture theatre today, there should be no admission tax whatsoever. Certainly then, if there is to be a tax it should be fair and in proportion to that levied against other institutions of this type and service. Let us stop everyday lives as a nonessential "luxury." Beware we do not kill this celluloid goose who lays the golden egg—nor bite unduly the fond patron's hand who feeds her.

I CLAIM

that the petition for my recall filed with the Commission Council on December 30, 1949, does not contain the names of 25% of the qualified electors of the City of Bay St. Louis as by law required.

The Election Commissioners through no fault of their own, did not complete the purging of the City poll books until Saturday, January 21, 1950. It was impossible for me to check the records until after that date.

In order, therefore, to stop the election which in all fairness and justice should never have been called, I find but one recourse and, that is, an appeal to the Courts.

WAS THE CERTIFICATE OF THE CITY CLERK MR. SYLVAN J. LADNER, JR., TO THE EFFECT THAT THE PETITIONS DID CONTAIN 25% OF THE QUALIFIED VOTERS A WILFUL AND MALICIOUS ATTEMPT TO MISREPRESENT THE FACTS TO THE PUBLIC AND, THEREBY, FORCE ME TO A SPECIAL RECALL ELECTION ON TUESDAY, JANUARY 31, 1950?

The Unpaid Assessments

of certain taxpayers which appeared in the statement made by me last week in this newspaper were taken from the report of the State Department of Audit of the City's records for the years 1944 through 1947. To be more specific, the names and amounts appeared in the report on:

Exhibit "D" Schedule 4, page 64,
Exhibit "D" Schedule 8, page 72,
Exhibit "D" Schedule 12, page 81, and

If any of those assessments were properly paid then the State audit report is wrong.
